

PROMOTING OF BRITISH VALUES

Subject Area – English

Aspect to consider	KS3	KS4
Democracy	Other worlds – looking at different cultures and traditions Conflict – prose and poetry studying war, its effects and its causes The media – non fiction writing to argue/persuade for/against causes Non fiction reading and writing. Covers a variety of issues including democracy and rights	Shakespeare: ‘Julius Caesar’ – democracy v dictatorship Transactional writing linked to British values Socialism versus capitalism in ‘An Inspector Calls’ Anthology poetry Revision of year 10 ‘A Christmas Carol’ and ‘An Inspector Calls’ (see year 10)
The Rule of Law	Crime and mystery. Extracts from novels from British literacy heritage Conflict – prose and poetry studying war, its effects and its causes Transactional writing from e.g. Blood Brothers	‘An Inspector Calls’ - consequences
Individual Liberty	Me myself and I. Fiction and non fiction text looking at own responsibilities and morals Crime and mystery Conflict – prose and poetry of wars Of Mice and Men – rights and responsibilities	Lack of freedom of choice in ‘Romeo & Juliet’ / ‘Macbeth’ Patriarchy in ‘Romeo & Juliet’ Lack of liberty for Eva Smith in ‘An Inspector Calls’ versus excessive liberty of the rich

Mutual Respect	Me myself and I. Fiction and non fiction text looking at responsibilities consequences, actions and morals Other worlds – poetry and prose looking at berating other people’s cultures and beliefs Crime and mystery Conflict – consideration of fellow man Non fiction reading and writing looking at a variety of text, including focus on tolerance and equality Poetry – consideration of fellow man	Respect between parents and child in ‘Romeo and Juliet’ Respect between generations and classes in ‘An Inspector Calls’ Consideration of fellow man in ‘A Christmas Carol’
Tolerance of those of Different Faiths and Beliefs	Other Worlds Poetry and prose looking at other cultures, traditions and beliefs The media – non fiction reading and writing looking at tolerance and equality Non fiction reading and writing. A variety of text including those focussed on tolerance and equality Poetry – other cultures, beliefs and religions	Beliefs in socialism/capitalism in ‘An Inspector Calls’ Different beliefs of Scrooge and his nephew in ‘A Christmas Carol’ Anthology poetry